

They also rave about the excellent customer service they receive, even before making their purchase from Old Skool Cycle Werks.

"It's great that you send me personal email updates and have put me in touch with a current customer. It means a lot to me to have good customer service (even though I'm not officially a customer yet)!" Staff Sgt. Ross Robinson, USAF, GA.

"Wow! Your quick and thorough responses give a consumer a lot of confidence when purchasing a product from you." D'Lacy Stith, OH.

Dealers across the United States are participating in OSCW's Dealer Partnership Program. Some of the benefits are increased revenue (30-50% profit margin), affordable customization for customers and volume-based exclusivity. OSCW is also partnering with companies to offer installation, paint, upholstery and other accessories.

"Another major contributing factor to Old Skool Cycle Werks' continued success is the endless support we receive from folks in our community," says Henry T. Chriss I, President/CEO of Old Skool Cycle Werks, LLP. "On behalf of the OSCW team, we thank God for our many blessings that include those who consistently help us: Mike Savidge; Mike Simpson; Ian Peabody; Radical Randy; Reverend Jim Goodrich; Parti Patti; loyal customers, like Jose Marrero; our authorized dealers, from Treasure Coast Harley-Davidson on the East coast, to Full Moon Motor Sports on the West coast; and the local and national magazines. We couldn't do it without you!"
